Granite Peak, Wausau, Wisconsin

$280

Feb 26th - 28th, 2010

We had such a great time the last couple years that we're going back again this year. Granite Peak (formerly Rib Mountain) lies in the center of the state in Wausau, and is the highest ski-able mountain in state. It also boasts the 2nd highest vertical in the whole Midwest at 700 feet. The area has made significant improvements in the past few years including: a High-Speed six person chair, new trails, a new base lodge with a ski shop, demo shop and cafe. The area has 100 percent snowmaking and grooming, and offers skiers and snowboarders a spectacular view of the city lights while night skiing. Our lodging will be at the Best Western in Wausau, in view of the Granite Peak ski area. This trip leaves Friday evening from Downers Grove Municipal parking lot and returns Sunday evening

TRIP INCLUDES: Round trip Party bus with pizza & munchies

2 Full day lifts at Granite Peak

2 nights lodging at the Best Western (double occupancy)

Saturday evening prime-rib dinner at the hotel

Complimentary Continental Breakfasts in the hotel's atrium

Note: our Granite Peak weekend trip always sells out - so, signup early!

Sweden FAM Report

By Georgia Lange

Åre Ski Resort

Schnapps to you!

Stockholm

In November I participated in a familiarization trip sponsored by Holiday Ski Tours. We checked out Sweden as a possible destination for our club. Having no idea what to expect, I was quite impressed with the quaintness of the ski village, Åre (ore-ah), and by the magnificent capital city, Stockholm.

Åre is a unique ski resort that stretches 10km along a frozen lake amid low sweeping mountains and snow-covered forests. It hosted the 2007 World Championships. We were not able to ski because the ski areas were not open, but Åre and adjacent Duved offer world-class slopes for all levels of skiing as well as snowboarding. Adventures such as heli-skiing, dog-sledding, ice skating, snow-mobiling and a sightseeing trip to Tannforsen, Sweden's highest natural waterfall, are also available. I actually went zip-lining. Never thought that I would do that in the snow.

The village offers many rustic restaurants and modern shopping areas. The food was outstanding! We tried some of the specialties such as moose, elk and reindeer. One evening we took a snowcat up to a mountain restaurant and sampled several flavors of local schnapps before dinner.

Stockholm is about an hour and a half flight from Åre. What a magnificent city of fourteen islands connected by bridges and tunnels! People love it for the food, the design, the music, galleries and museums.

Although there are many must-sees in Stockholm, we were only able to visit a few. We toured the Vasa Museum that houses the recovered impressive Swedish wooden warship that sank on her maiden voyage in 1628 in Stockholm's Harbor after sailing less than one nautical mile. She was ultimately found during the 1950's and later salvaged in 1961.

We also visited City Hall where the Nobel Peace Prize Banquet is held. Another highlight was a half-day Millennium walking tour that followed the footsteps of Mikael Blomkvist and Lisbeth Salander, main characters in Stieg Larsson's book, The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo.

I had never really entertained the thought of skiing in Sweden, but having been there, I would love to go back. I think that three days in Åre, two days in Stockholm and then an extension to either St.Petersburg, Russia or to Reykjavikk, Iceland would be a fabulous trip.
